

What some past participants on this course have said:

"The course will totally transform your ministry."

Revd Ian Bunce, Baptist Regional Minister, Norfolk

"An excellent training course."

Joanna Cox, Church of England Board of Education, London

"The course is hugely useful as the skills can be applied at any level and just in personal interactions, whether you will act as a mediator in future or not."

Sue Jackson, Connexional Secretary for Continuing Development,
Methodist Church, London

"An excellent and clear introduction to mediation which would benefit both those who want to understand it and those who might want to exercise such a ministry."

Alan Hay, Anglican, Mediation for Kent Churches, Canterbury

"One of the most practical and empowering courses that I have attended."

Revd David Goodyear, Baptist minister, Aberdeen

"An excellent context in which to develop understanding of interpersonal tension and skills for dealing with it."

Revd Julia Mourant, CME Adviser, Anglican Diocese of Chelmsford

"The course gives key hope and methods to understand those we disagree with."

Revd Richard Turnbull, URC minister and Uni. chaplain, Nottingham

"This is an excellent and necessary tool for those involved in active ministry, or in any group work."

Lise Barbeau, Roman Catholic sister, Canada

SKILLS TRAINING FOR MEDIATION & FACILITATION IN THE CHURCH

26–30 June 2006

Guy Chester Centre, London N10

led by the Bridge Builders team

Conflict is normal and inevitable – but Christians often feel ill-prepared to handle conflict in the church. The Skills Training Course for Mediation and Facilitation in the Church is designed to equip Christians with practical skills for responding constructively to conflict. This five-day course explores conflict within us, between individuals and within the congregation. The course aims to raise self-awareness, to develop understanding of conflict and to teach methods to facilitate resolution and transformation of conflicts, particularly through mediation. Although focussed primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are transferable to other areas of life.

Bridge Builders, the training and mediation service of the London Mennonite Centre, invites all those interested in addressing conflicts within the church to take part in the course. The course is being held residentially in London for the first time at the Guy Chester Centre. Spaces are limited, but we retain a desire to have a breadth of denominations represented, as in previous years. Course participants will be invited to join our Mediators' Network, of Christians around Britain involved in transforming church conflict.

"All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation." 2 Corinthians 5:18

SKILLS TRAINING FOR MEDIATION & FACILITATION IN THE CHURCH

26–30 June 2006, Guy Chester Centre, London, N10 1PR

Begins 9:00am on Monday, ends 4:30pm Friday

The course will include teaching, group work and guided practice. Active and practical in focus, the sessions will emphasise hands-on skills training and use role-plays based on the kinds of conflicts encountered in the church. Each day will include times of prayer and worship. The course is intensive, and includes evening sessions on the Tuesday and Wednesday; significant other commitments are best avoided during the week.

Presenters

Alastair McKay is director of Bridge Builders at the LMC, providing training, mediation and consultancy services to churches since 1996. Alastair has an MA in Conflict Transformation, and has contributed to the book Making Peace With Conflict (Herald Press, 1999).

Colin Patterson is an Anglican priest who joins Bridge Builders' staff in October 2005. He has worked as a training officer for the Diocese of Durham and is author of the recent Grove booklet How to Learn Through Conflict.

Charletta Erb is trainer and mediator with Bridge Builders. She is a US Mennonite, with a degree in Peace, Justice and Conflict Studies.

Meals and Accommodation

The course is mostly residential with meals provided each day from Monday lunch until Friday lunch time, of breakfast, lunch and evening meal, in single or shared room accommodation at the Guy Chester Centre in Muswell Hill, London N10 1PR (see www.chestercentre.org.uk). There is the option of overnight bed and breakfast accommodation on the Sunday night. There are a certain number of non-residential places available, with lunch and two evening meals provided. Alternative accommodation for a few people will be available at the nearby London Mennonite Centre.

Cost, Application and Cancellation

The cost for the course is £585 residential (£550 in a shared room) or £450 non-residential. Precedence is given to applicants sponsored by their church or organisation, and who may use the training for its benefit, or to enhance their own ministry. If you are on a very low income, then please contact us to see whether a bursary may be available. Two training manuals and a style profile are included in the fee.

Spaces are limited to a maximum of 24, so do apply early, as these courses are regularly over-subscribed. To apply, return the enclosed application form with a cheque for £100 payable to Bridge Builders. The balance of the fee is due eight weeks before the start of the course. Once accepted, the £100 deposit is a non-refundable. The full fee is owed if a place is cancelled within six weeks of the course start date.
